To Whom It May Concern,

I am proud to issue this letter of recommendation for The Mallard Group. I first became acquainted with The Mallard Group during a large product reset for a major hardware retailer. We were behind schedule and called upon them to assist us in meeting our original deadline. Under the leadership of Brian Mallard, we did just that.

I have found The Mallard Group to be a responsive and dedicated service supplier. I have had the opportunity to call on them for large projects and small emergency projects and they have always provided excellent support and service.

Sincerely,

Susan Dutra
